DEDICATION

We dedicate this souvenir program to our children who are "the hope of our FADerland".

"Spelled the wrong way!" seemed to have exclaimed by the little kid who butt in the middle of a Christmas acrostics. It was not a disarrangement. It was only the beginning of the acrostics.

MESSAGE FROM THE AMBASSADOR

Isang maligayang pasko at manigong bagong taon sa lahat ng mga opisyal, mga miyembro at mga kaibigan ng samahan ng mga pilipino sa Denmark.

Perhaps there is no other time during the year when the thoughts of Filipinos abroad wander back to their own land, than during the christmas season, because it is during this part of the year when all the members of our family com together to be reunited. It is a season of reunion even for distant relatives whom we seldom see during the rest of the year.

These thoughts are perhaps tinged with a little sadness, especially for those of us who find that they cannot celebrate christmas with all their loved ones. But above all, I think this season should be one of joy and celebration, because og your good fortune to have found the rare opportunity to improve your lives in a foreign land.

For me, one important meaning of christmas is togetherness. We Filipinos value highly our sense of kinship. I hope that during this season, indeed throughout the year, this sense of togetherness will embrace not just our relatives and close friends, but all of our countrymen. Because it is only in oneness or unity that peace and progress can be achieved in our country.

My best wishes and warm greetings to all of you this christmas of 1988 and I hope we will have a very peaceful, happy and prosperous 1989!

HONORIO T. CAGAMPAN
Ambassador

MESSAGE FROM THE CONSUL

The FAD Christmas Party 1988 is my first call on the Filipino Association in Denmark and I could hardly think of a better occasion for the start of our co-operation. The Christmas celebrations is a tradition we have in common. It is the time of the year, when our thoughts are directed towards our neighbours, and even the most harassed man forgets about his doings and concentrates on family, friends and charity. The fact that the Filipino way of celebrating Christmas differs from the Danish way merely makes it an even greater experience.

The year 1989 is soon to start, and as your new Consul General I am very much looking forward to assist and help the Philippine Community in Denmark. It is, therefore, with great enthusiasm and expectations that I attend the FAD Christmas Party.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and may it be a year of progress and good health for all of you.

(sgd) ARNE SIMONSEN
Consul General
Philippine Consulate in Denmark

MESSAGE FROM THE IN-COMING PRESIDENT

To lead a Filipino organization in a foreign soil is rather a beguiling task, especially when the remunerations are nil and the gratitude due is low. The job is small as an iceberg's tip but it requires a massive heartfelt and perceptive effort to respond to certain or other needs of the Filipinos as immigrants.

It is for these reasons that summons me to step into the shoes of leadership once used by my senior predecessors. The shoes may look to big for me because of that father image that I could not fit into. As your humble brother who have one heart and two hands, I wish to solicit your willingness to support me and my co-officers in order to materlize the dreams of our Association and the whole Filipino community.

"Glædelig Jul og Godt Nytår!"

(sgd) BENIGNO ADRIATICO
FAD President 1989-90

MESSAGE FROM THE OUT-GOING PRESIDENT

To most Filipinos, Christmas is a time to show the true meaning of friendship and share the harvest during the year. It is a time, not only for family reunions, but also for neighborly gathering bearing the elements of the fiesta. There is carolling and singing, participating in lantern parades, attending the Misa de Gallo and the Midnight Mass, improvising a Christmas tree and manger, showing of Christmas tableaux and merry-making everywhere. It is worth commending to note that we have brought along in this country our unique bayanihan spirit of celebrating Christmas.

As I face the end of my term, I take the pleasure to thank deeply those members and non-members who have been very supportive during the last two years, most especially my colleagues in the Board who stood by my side when I needed them most.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to one and all!

(sgd) SALLY B. HANSEN
FAD President 1987-88

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

We are again entering another period of our Association under the new leadership of junior and senior members. They seem to prove that age gaps, among other things, are not detrimental towards an innovative and active Association.

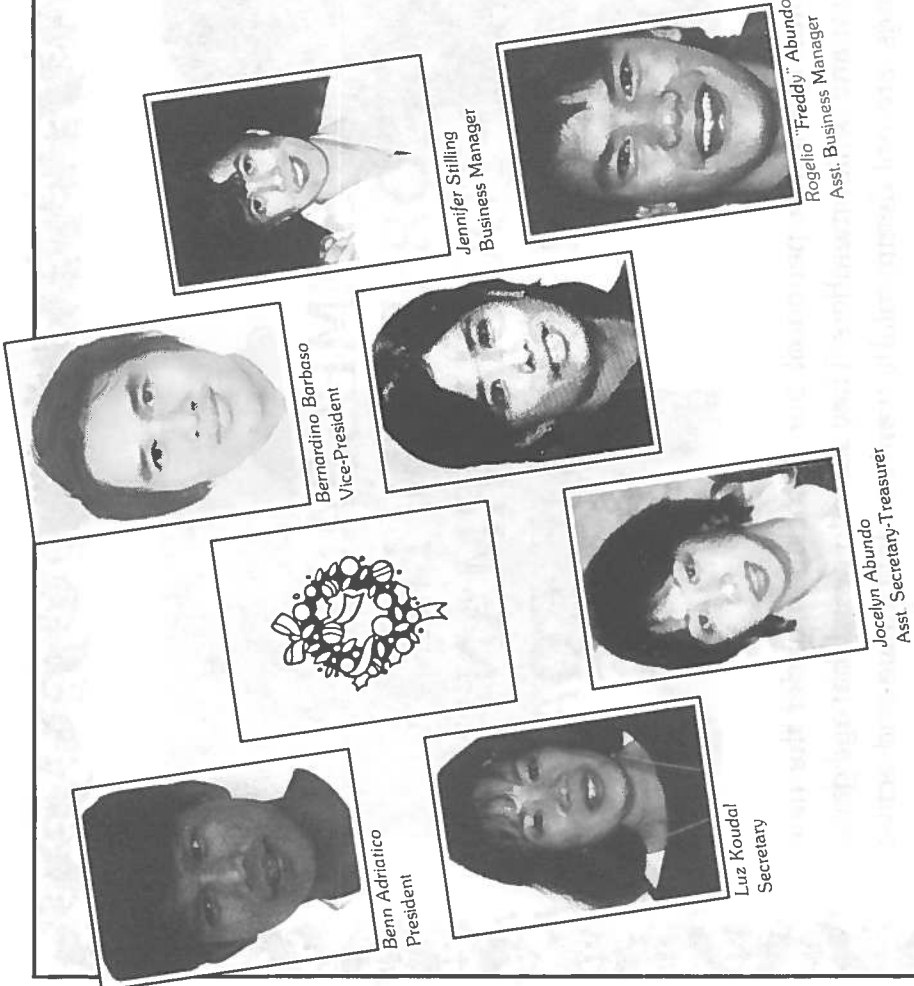

Being one of the early members or founders of the FAD, I have witnessed how its simple beginnings bloomed into a sturdy organization. I had seen officers and members come and go due to one valid reason or another yet the FAD is still standing. This confirms the fact that there are and will always be someone to stand for our Association and carry on its ideals when everyone else had failed or had to lie low.

I congratulate the daring "first-timer" officers for their initiative to lead their fellow Filipinos, and likewise to the "old-timer" officials for their concern and loyalty to our Association. All the best to all of you.

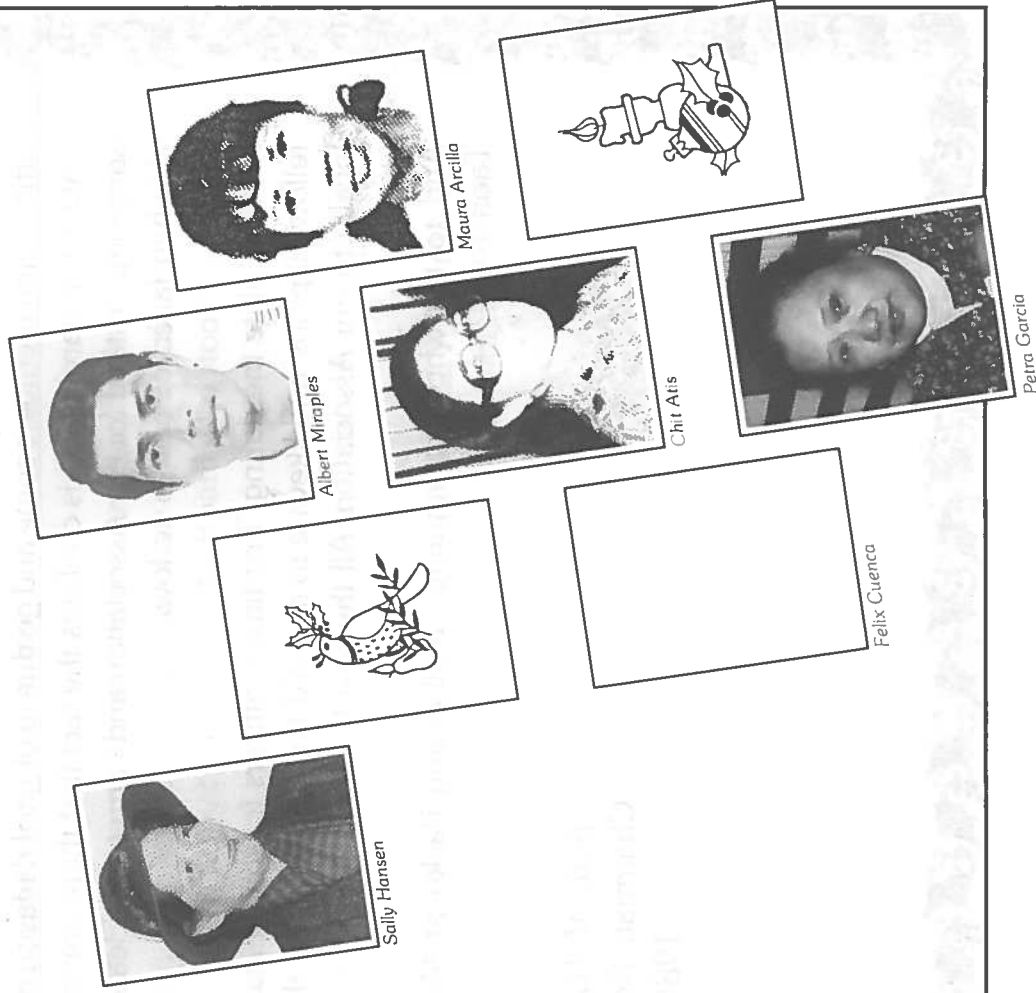

And to the whole community, "Maligayang Pasko at Manigong Bagong Taon"!
