

89th Philippine INDEPENDENCE
Celebrations

Featuring
The Coronation of
Miss FAD Philippine Independence

Hotel Scandinavia
June 6, 1987

PHILIPPINE NATIONAL ANTHEM
(Pambansang Awit ng Pilipinas)

WELCOME ADDRESS	Mrs. Sally Hansen FAD President
Invocation	Fr. Patrick Sheils, CS.s.R Chaplain for the Filipino Community
Dinner	Scandinavian Buffet
Message	Hon. Honorio T. Cagampan Philippine Ambassador Stockholm, Sweden
Folkdance	Jennifer Stilling Benn Adriatico

Independence Day

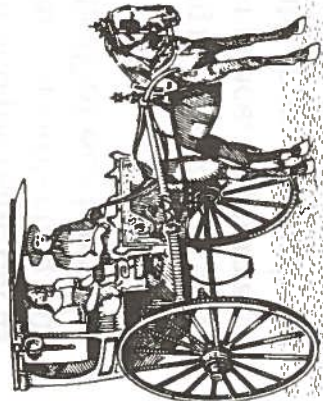

Aguinaldo mansion

Ang kislap ng watawat mo'y
tagumpay na nagniningning
Ang bituin at araw niya
kailan pa ma'y di magdidilim
Lupa ng araw ng luwalhati't pagsinta
Buhay ay langit sa piling mo.
Aming ligaya na pag may mang-aapi,
Ang mamatay ng dahil sa iyo.

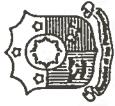

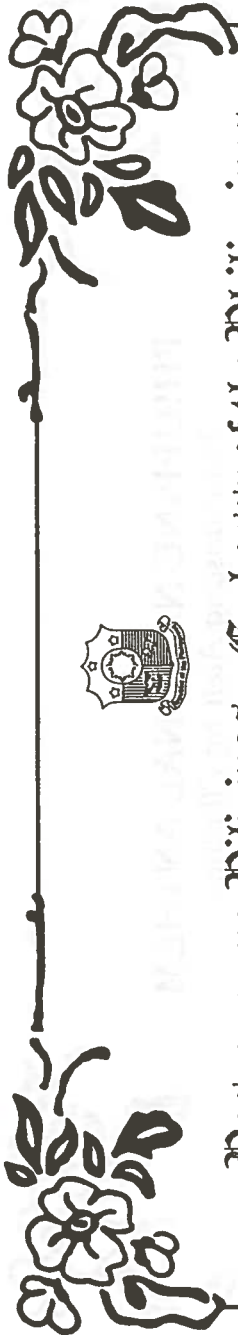

EDITOR'S NOTE

Our cover shows the "kalesa" or a horse drawn vehicle -one of the oldest form of transportation in the Philippines. The Chinatown in Manila and few other towns and cities still patronize these vehicles which add to the authenticity of the town's antiquity. Though they can not compete in convenience with the colorful tricycles and jeepneys, the "kalesa" drives proud and tall on the road for not polluting the environment.

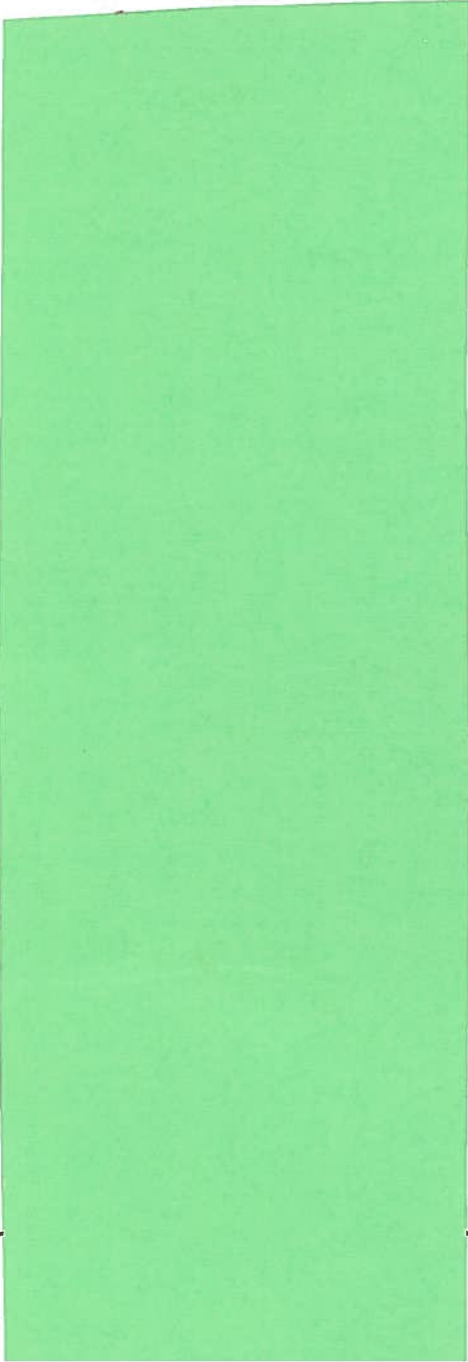

A profound gratitude is due to the advertizers and to those who had help us make this souvenir program possible.

Kalesa

Masuguan ng Pilipinas Embassy of the Philippines

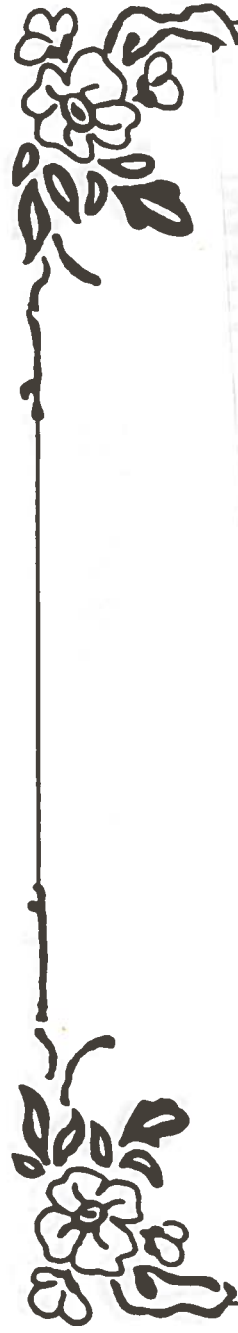

As we Filipinos commemorate the 89th Anniversary of our Independence on June 12, it is but fitting and proper to recall the valiant struggles of our forefathers in establishing the first democratic republic in Asia. When the might of the Spanish conquistadores was challenged on the lonely beach of Mactan by the first Filipino freedom fighter Lapu-Lapu and his men armed only with spears and bolos, the act signalled the beginning of our unending quest for freedom. Many times in our history, our country had been subjugated but our love for freedom and democracy had always prevailed. The revolution last February 1986 was yet another proof that the Filipino people will not allow themselves to be enslaved either by foreigners or by their very own countrymen.

While our country is again free, we still have many problems. Our government is being besieged from both the left and the right. Let us not be complacent. We must always be vigilant in protecting our freedom and independence so that the sacrifices of our founding fathers shall have not been in vain.

I enjoin all our compatriots who are now living in Denmark to unite and help our country not only in its struggles for peace, freedom and democracy but also in the development of its economy and the preservation of its cherished institutions.

Mabuhay ang Pilipinas.

HONORIO T. CAGAMPAN
Ambassador

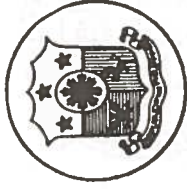

Welcome Address	led by Elena Olsen Mrs. Sally Hansen FAD President
Invocation	Fr. Patrick Sheils, CS.s.R Chaplain for the Filipino Community
Dinner	Scandinavian Buffet
Message	Hon. Honorio T. Cagampan Philippine Ambassador Stockholm, Sweden
Folkdance	Jennifer Stilling Benn Adriatico

Awarding of Trophies to the Eagle Bowling Champions
1st prize - Flor Bordeos

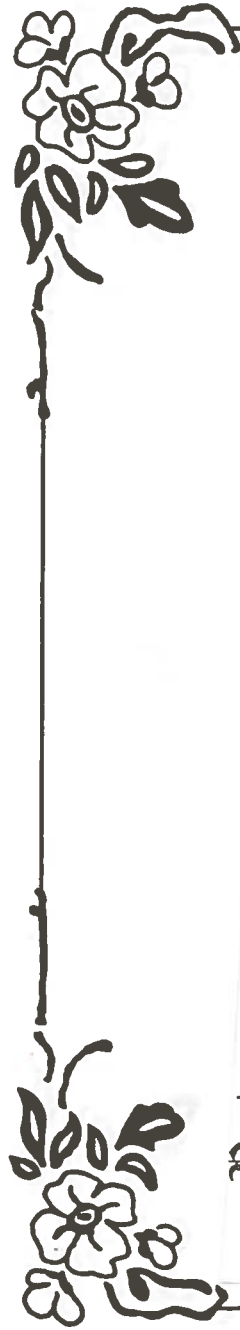

The celebration of the 89th Independence Day gives all of us an occasion to express and demonstrate our loyalty and respect to president Corazon Aquino and her government. The general election in the Philippines has proven that true democracy now is on its way in spite of many obstacles. May this development lead to the welfare and happiness to the Filipino people.

It is a great privilege to me to announce that H. E. Ambassador Honorio T. Cagampan has presented his credentials to Her Majesty The Queen and is now our new ambassador based in Stockholm. We welcome His Excellency to Scandinavia and look forward to an agreeable and fruitful cooperation.

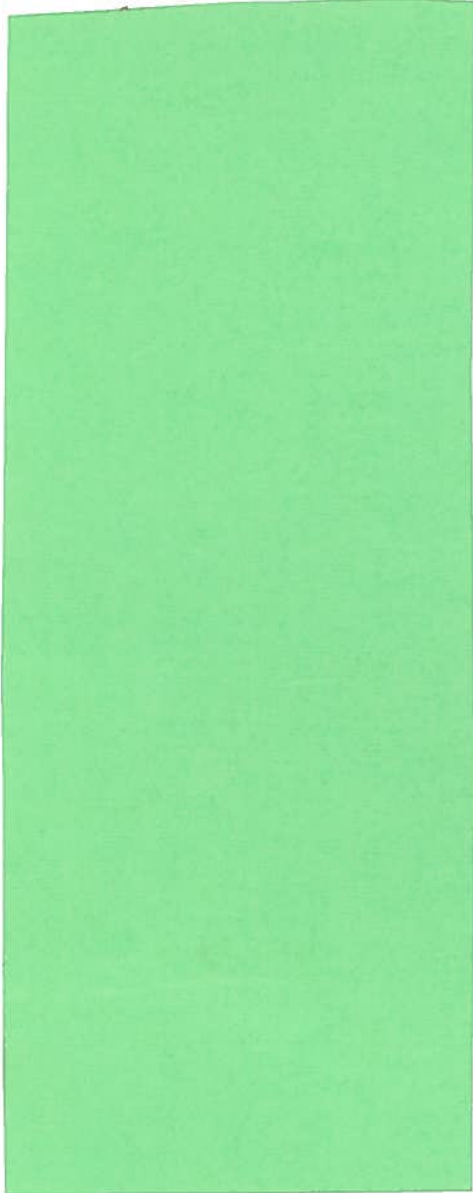

Please accept my best wishes to all Filipino families in Denmark.
Mabuhay!

THORKILD ERRITZØE
Consul General a.h.

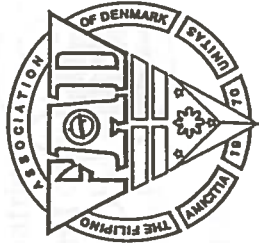

Basuguan ng Pampunaz

As we Filipinos commemorate the 89th Anniversary of our Independence on June 12, it is but fitting and proper to recall the Independence Day is a moment of celebration of how our freedom was won by our forefathers. Likewise, it is a day of awareness and concern in building the Filipino nation. Perhaps, it appears that there is very little we can do about it since we are a mileage away from the country but these little things are too far important to be ignored, such as protecting the dignity of our women, teaching the real and proper Filipino values to the second generation who are growing up, safeguarding the endangered image of Filipinos as guest workers in Denmark, and respecting and understanding the sentiments and dreams of our host nation, the Danes. These challenges we are facing are not too small when the results will be measured. Only then can we know what freedom really means and what is really to be a strong nation. Let us all join our fellowmen back home to build a strong and hopeful nation by doing our share here.

Mabuhay!

(sgd) Mrs. SALLY HANSEN
FAD President

PROGRAMME

Philippine National Anthem	led by Elena Olsen
Welcome Address	Mrs. Sally Hansen FAD President
Invocation	Fr. Patrick Sheils, CS.s.R Chaplain for the Filipino Community
Dinner	Scandinavian Buffet
Message	Hon. Honorio T. Cagampan Philippine Ambassador Stockholm, Sweden
Folkdance	Jennifer Stilling Benn Adriatico

Awarding of Trophies to the Eagle Bowling Champions 1st prize - Flor Bordeos 2nd prize - Francisco Jimenez 3rd prize - Cesar Fernandez and awarding of Trophies to FAD Stars and FAD Scorpions Basketball Teams	Hon. Thorkild Erritzøe Philippine Gen. Consul a.h. Analiza Jensen
Jazzballet

Presentation and Coronation of Miss FAD Philippine Independence 87, Miss Luzon, Miss Visayas and Miss Mindanao	Mrs. Rose Jimenez Mr. Benn Adriatico
Song	Oscar Trinidad
Song	Elena Olsen

Dance - Dance - Dance - Dance - Dance

Ms. Tina Peralta & Mr. Chito Aldeguer
Emcees

Donors of Trophies:
Consul General Thorkild Erritzøe
FAD President Sally Beltrano Hansen
Attorney Pat Lubaton

Miss FAD Independence

Filipina Uy-Baretta

Filipina is the sixth of the eight children of Mrs. Ester Lund. She was born on November 8, 1971. This 8th grader loves to listen to pop-music, reads a lot and still prefers Filipino cuisine. She joined her family three years ago and had no difficulty integrate herself with the Danish system and weather. Simplicity is her virtue. So is the true Filipina.

Miss Visayas

Daisy Tolentino

Daisy has a striking similarity with the flower of the same name. She blushes easily when she is teased but immediately brightens up to counteract the teasing. "None", she answered when asked what her hobbies are. "Not even collecting boyfriends?", was asked to her which made her looked red. Suddenly, she retorted, "Oh yes, broken hearts!" She was born on December 1, 1970, the fifth of the six children of Cleto and Melita Tolentino.

Miss Luzon

Mehetabel Gatdula

Her name really sounds more of an "orig" Filipino name than the usual Hispanic names of most Filipinos. Mehetabel is the youngest of the five children of Marcelo and Maxima Gatdula. She likes dancing, especially to the music of Wham and Madonna. Sometimes, she mimes her music idols though she has her own singing style. She now enjoys her classes in the 8th grade.

Miss Mindanao

Leilani Gangozo

Leilani is the youngest among the candidates of this year's popularity contest but the eldest among the three children of Mrs. Susan Sanchez. She was born November 11, 1975. Her charm and cuteness are the living lyrics and music of the famous Hawaiian song, "Sweet Leilani". She has the active self and the beautiful self, which means that nothing will come between her and her playing of tennis. Nor nothing will stop her from adoring smart clothes and beautiful dresses.

She always stays beside her man. And if need be, behind him. Sought after, she is an earth-mother: Caring, fussing and loving.

She has a subtle combination of dusky Malay, a touch of Chinese and fair Spanish.

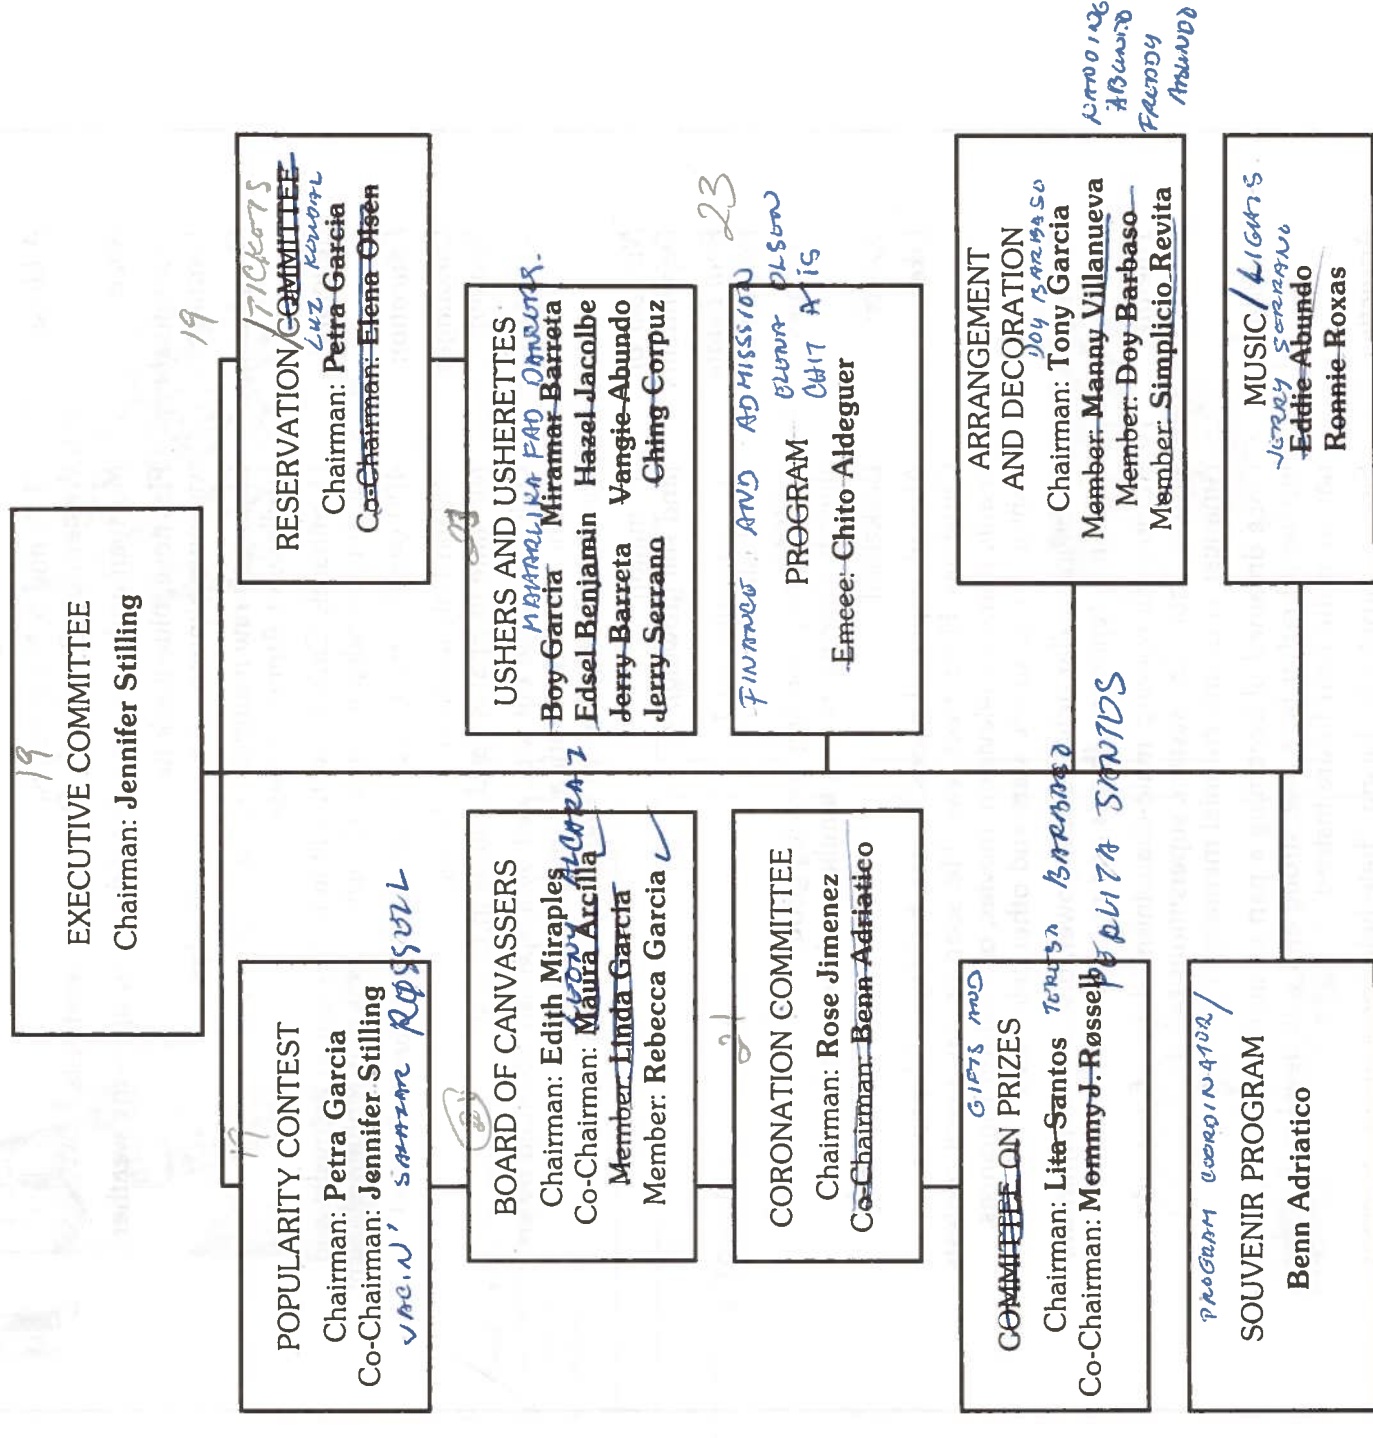

She is cunning, a flirt, a career-girl, and suddenly, a president. She is a roving ambassador and walks to the world as a beauty queen, a chamber maid, a nurse, a torch singer and a versatile domestic helper; Yet even in her old age, she manages to return an aura of quiet mystery if not intrigue.

"Paano, babae kasi éh!"

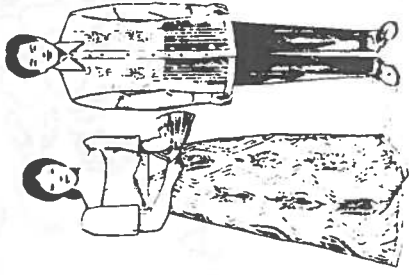

She, A Filipina

EXECUTIVE AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

A BIO-DATA

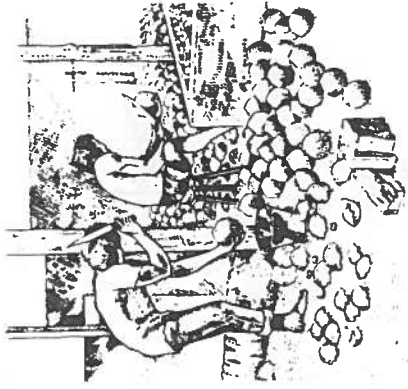

Name: Republika Ng Pilipinas.
A.K.A.: RP, Philippines, Phils., 'Pinas, Filipinas, Pilipinas, Perlas Ng Silangan.
Birth day: June 12, 1898.
Address: 21°N and 5°N Lattitudes, Westernmost Rim Pacific Ocean, Southeast Asia.
Race: Malayan and sometimes fair depending upon the weather.
Distinguishing Features: Flat nose, blue-black hair, winsome almond eyes and kissable lips.
Occupation: Exporting raw materials and man-power, landlady of American bases.
Religion: Dominantly Catholic with a little inclination to animistic and charismatic religion, other Christian sects and Mohamedanism.
Education: 400 years in the Convent, 50 years in Hollywood.
Languages Spoken: Malayo-Polynesian in 87 forms, tells time in Spanish and counts in English.
Civil Status: Officially single but widowed by a Spanish, divorced by an American, lived-in with a Japanese and presently under the loving care of President Corazon Aquino.
Number of Dependents: 55 million (and still growing).
Real Estate Properties: 7.100 islands.
Hobbies: Cockfighting, cooking, looking good, singing, dancing, raising families and "hueteng".
Sports: Basketball.
Likes: Abroad, imported goods, fiestas, holidays, Valentines, Christmas, Holy Week, easy life, soap operas, talent contests, beauty contests, television, movies, old-fashion romances, fashion, icons, movie stars and other celebrities.
Peeves: 25 billion dollar debt, nuclear power, divorce, Communism, "tulisans", typhoons, floods and poverty.
Tolerates: Rumour-mongering, malechauvinism, debts-of-gratitude system, "querida" system, superstitious belief, Americanisms, and colonial mentality.
Ambition: Once dreamed of becoming a part of statehood, USA, but would rather be a one, strong and well-developed nation in the near future instead.
Attractive Qualities: Sincere, hospitable, loving, "hele-hele-bago-quiere", tolerant, industrious, and smiles away her problems.
Princeple in Life: "Ang Diyos lamang ang nakakaalam, sapagka't ako'y tao lamang."

Prepared by:
Benn Adriatico

Compliments of

Lista del Rosario
Augustagade 11
2300 Copenhagen S
01 59 22 36

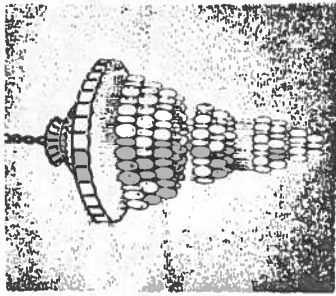

Tapahan

The Philippines is the largest producers of coconut in the world. Coconuts are grown in large plantation and small homestead all over the country. The palm is the "Tree of Life" of Filipinos.

Compliments of

Kids Børnetøj
Jennifer Stilling, prop.
Frederikssunds Center
3600 Frederikssund
02 31 69 85

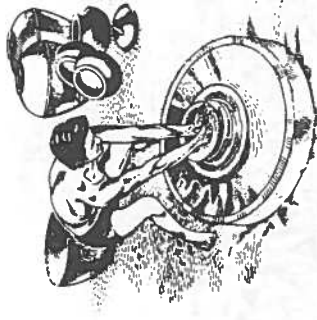

Kapis shell chandelier

'Kapis' is a very thin bivalve gathered off the bottom of the sea. The main areas are the Manila Bay, Visayas Sea and off Capiz province. The shells are trimmed, chemically cured and laminated.

Compliments of

Garcia Family
Petra - Tony
Donald - Boy - Jun

Pottery

The pottery in Vigan, Ilocos Sur is interestingly primitive. Clay comes in small hard lumps from the rice paddies, mixed with water and trodden overbright by carabaos. The kiln is long half buried tunnel rising gently from wood fueled furnace. The pots are brown and the jars or "bunays" are black.

Compliments of

Ramon Neri IV
Precy Neri
Josie Galano

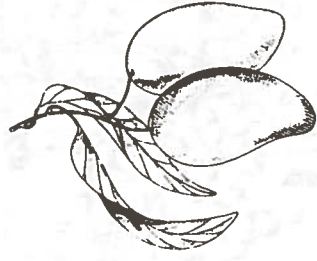

Sugar cane cutter

Sugar cane grows best in Panay islands and Southern Luzon because of their fertile soil and situated away from the typhoon belt.

Compliments of

Leo & Nenilin Jensen

Mango

No other mangoes in the world can equal the Filipino Carabao Mango. It is big and luscious. It is yellow when ripe. It is green and sour when unripe, usually eaten with "baggoong".

Compliments of

Ophelia Bratas
and children:
Loreta & Christopher

Cockfight

Cockfighting is a sport much loved by Filipinos. One cock is called "mayroon" and the other is "wala" and bets is placed on both. The bookmakers are the most fascinating in the fight because of their extensive memories to calculate the bets.

Compliments of

Kai & Marietta Mortensen

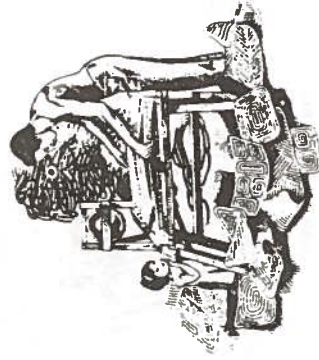

Rice planting in paddy fields

Rice is the main and preferred staple food crop of more than 70% of Filipinos. It is most ideal in Central Luzon due to bad drainage which makes the soil wet and acidic.

Compliments of

Berlie Tejada Favores
Otto Jensen
Aurea & Angela Svendsen

Abaca floor mats

Abaca is one of the country's main exports. It is found only in the Philippines and mainly produced in Davao and Bicol Peninsula because of the volcanic soil and high rainfall.

Compliments of

Beltrano-Hansens Trading
Valdemarsgade 69-71
1665 Copenhagen V
01 31 03 06

Basket venders

Basket works are both decorative aesthetically pleasing. For Filipinos, baskets are very functional. They are used for food storage, household storage, for fishing, winnowing rice, for hen coops, bags, etc.

Compliments of

The Filipino Association of Europe
Grosslager v/ Peter Beltrano Bil
Bahnhofstrasse 40
5300 Bonn 1
009 49 228 649157
01 31 03 06

Papaya

Large fruit up to 30 cm. long resembling elongated melon with smooth green/yellow skin and deep yellow/pink flesh lined with black seeds. Ripe fruit eaten fresh or used in preserves and pies. Available all year.

Abra River Gap

Dati-rati ang isipan ko'y alipin lang,
Isip banyaga ang aking kinagisnan
Aking pinutul ang tanikala
Upang ang isip ko ay malaya.

Florante

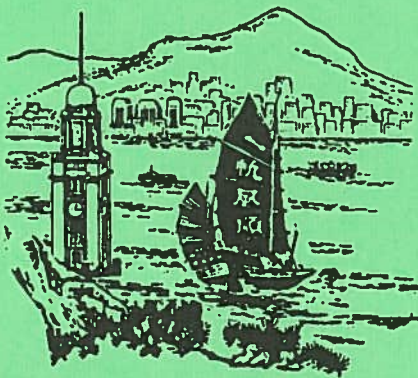

Mabuhay Ang Pilipinas!
Mabuhay Ang Demokrasiya!

THE FILIPINO ASSOCIATION OF DENMARK

HONG KONG

SUPERMARKET

We sell Philippine Foods, different kinds of spices as well as
Asian fruits and vegetables.

Reventlowsgade 20
1651 Copenhagen V
01 23 38 93